THE IRISH PARTY.

Liberal Leaders All at Sea at the Present Time.

NO ONE NOW TO LEAD THEM.

The British Government Determined to Push the Land Purchase But Through Parliament Which Will Entirely Reverse the Present Situation — Other Foreign News.

London, Dec. 4.—The Liberal leaders will hold a meeting soon to determine upon a course of action. At present they are at sea, and this dilemma is not likely to be relieved by any change in the leadership of the Irish party, as there is no such person to lead the conservative wing in the party. The Home Rule bill is considered out of the way, and as far as leaving out any plan of land purchase for Ireland is developing itself.

Mr. Labouchere has all along been opposed to sending English credit for any such purpose as ailing tenants to become proprietors, as he has many sympathies both in the Liberal and Conservative ranks. The government, however, is determined to push the land bill through, and will be aided by Paoli and his supporters, thus entirely reversing the present situation in parliament. The Tories continue to attack Paoli with censure on and threats of recall, relaxation of the severely critical tone in which he has been discussed by the Conservative press.

From an interview today Lord Hartington said that, except the Home Rule bill should be shelved, there could be no peace between the Conservative and Liberal Unionists until Irishmen have been fully and satisfactorily disposed of. This much the Liberal Unionists owed to Lord Salisbury and us.

The Tories are starting an active canvas of their party in Scotland, where in many constituencies, they have heretofore been in opposition to the Gladstone Liberals.

From a paper to the word of that the tenants have seized the opportunity of the demolition of the Home Rule cause to make their peace with Smith-Barry and are out to reoccupy their deserted farms. The recent trial brought out that a considerable number of the evicted had succeeded in joining the plan of campaign and giving up their property, in which many of them had invested much money, to one tenant, for instance, paying a ground rent of £20 a year for an estate which he and his father had purchased at an expense of £3,000. Tenants of this class have been specially anxious to make arrangements with their landlord, and are embracing this occasion to do so. Now Tipperary is said to be almost deserted by business, while the boycotted shopkeepers of the old town are regaining trade.

The Newfoundland Question.

London, Dec. 4.—A dispatch from Paris says that M. Ribot, minister of foreign affairs, said regarding the Newfoundland question: "As to the notion of the Newfoundlanders annexing themselves to the United States, there is no fear of that. They would have the whole British fleet to deal with."

A. Quiet Now.

RIO JANERO, Dec. 4.—The recent ministerial crisis grew out of a dispute between President De Fonseca and the members of his cabinet regarding the punishment of those office-holders who were implicated in the wrecking of the offices of the Tribune newspaper. The affair has been satisfactorily arranged.

Parnell Confident.

London, Dec. 4.—Mr. Parnell expresses himself as confident of retaining supremacy in his Irish party. He tells his adherents that his position is stronger than at any previous stage of the dispute, and especially by reason of the assurance of support received from America.

Don't Compete With Indians.

London, Dec. 4.—A report from the British consul in Uruguay warns British subjects against settling in that country, where they are laborers, agriculturists or artisans, as they can not expect to win the Indians in the matter of low wages and miserable living.

Cotton Mills Burned.

London, Dec. 4.—Fire has damaged the mills of the Coventry Cotton Spinning Company to the extent of many thousands of pounds. Two hundred workers have been deprived of employment in consequence.

Take the Peasants' Work.

BERN, Dec. 4.—The body of a young peasant, 14 or 15 years old, was found hanging from a branch of a Jack-the-Ripper, which had found a forest in the vicinity of this city.

County Treasurers' Meeting.

PASADENA, N. J., Dec. 4.—The Bittenhouse manufacturing mills here has failed with a deficit of about $80,000. The assets of the firm stated to be about $100,000 less. The failure was brought about by the embezzlement of other house and the low prices prevailing in the wool market. The company has been in a shabby condition for a year or more.

To the Supreme Court.

ALBANY, Dec. 4.—Wm. Brush, of Sing Sing prison, was nominated by telegraph yesterday by the state court of appeals to the Supreme Court. The appeal by United States against Judge Wm. Wm. in the Wood case will operate in the nature of a stay, as the United States government has been unable to complete the suit in time to the trial.

Not Without Hope.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—The family of Benjamin H. Clegg, the Northern millionaire, still hopes that he will be found alive and well. The lake and a forest for him and the family is said to believe that he may have gone to the docks and taken passage for a trip to some port.

INDIAN WAR.

Reports Sent to Washington Indicate No Serious Change.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The only dispatch received at the war department this morning bearing on the Indian situation, was from the Indian agency. All was reported quiet there. The absence of disastrous Pine Ridge and Standing Rock Indian agencies is regarded at the war department as an evidence that the situation is no worse and probably better than it was.

Orders were yesterday issued from the war department, directing the First, Fifth and seven regiments of infantry, proceed at once to the neighborhood of the Rosedale agency. The First and Seventh regiments will proceed first to Omaha and then await further orders as to the exact location to which they will proceed.

The acting commissioner of Indian affairs yesterday afternoon received the following telegram from Indian Agent Linton at Chamberlain, S. Dak.: "No change since last report. Eleven in jail. Quarter adequate, seven more men holding horses, leave 5 from authority to attach eight police and 160 horses during the winter. No military arrived yet. No need of any military to prevent trouble. I can handle it."

Freezing the Fighting.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 4.—The Indians are commencing to starve and the threatened uprising will be postponed if the cold weather continues. At Rapid City, near the Red and agency, the thermometer ranges 8 degrees above zero. At Sully 6 degrees above and Bismarck 2 degrees above.

Troops on the Move.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Dec. 4.—The Third cavalry, consisting of nineteen officers, 330 men and 300 horses, arrived yesterday afternoon from Fort Wingate, on their way to Fort Meade, to the Black Hills. They were paid off here before leaving to the extent of $100. They have been fourteen years in New Mexico and glad to get a change. Some of the old Indian fighters are among the officers and men. Two companies of infantry left Fort Wingate will be followed by a troop of cavalry from Whipple barracks. Gen. Corcoran, commander of the Third cavalry, interviewed, said he thought there would be no trouble with the Navajos or Apaches.

FARMERS' ALLIANCE.

The Second Day of the National Convention at Ocala, Florida.

OCALA, Fla., Dec. 4.—At the Farmers' Alliance convention yesterday morning a resolution was adopted providing for a committee of one from each state delegation to investigate the conduct of Dr. Macine, chairman of the national executive committee. L. F. Layng, president of the Georgia state alliance, and President Polk, in reference to the charges against these gentlemen that they were influenced in their action regarding the senatorship by money considerations.

The resolution of the national treasury and executive board were not submitted at the morning session as promised.

Resolutions were offered providing for the eligibility of members of the national committee on credit to be eligible to incumbency for election to the legislative council and for redrawing franchises so as to make the convention a strictly representative body.

At last evening's session of the National Farmers' Alliance the report of the committee on credit was received. A special committee was appointed which alone is authorized to give out information.

Other committees appointed were on President's message on order of business, on mileage and per diem, and on fraternal relations. The last-named committee is an important one, and its duty is to receive representatives from other National organizations, similar in character, with a view of securing concerted action on legislation, etc., and aiming at the ultimate consolidation of them all. As M. Powderly expected here this morning, the convention will doubtless have an early adjournment.

The night session adjourned at 10:45 p.m.

The Irish Envoy.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—All but two of the Irish envoys are still at the Grand Pacific hotel, Mr. St. Coll and Sullivan left yesterday for Dayton, O., where they are to speak. Mr. O'Connor, a lawyer, was at Dolan, but wired there last night that it would be safe to break, because he could not leave until the trouble was over.

Mr. Hartigan, New York, said that the arrival of the envoys was pushed up.

Mr. O'Connor of New Jersey, said that the moral cause of the American people would be a dead loss this fall.

Mr. Keeler of Iowa, up to the bill.

Mr. Cannon, of New York, declared that the bill was dominated by the anti-slavery forces.

THE INDIAN WAR DISCUSSION.

The Election Bill Comes Up in the Senate and Interrupts the Indian Discussion. The Copyright Bill in the House—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—In the senate yesterday a long and interesting discussion took place on the subject of the threatened Indian war, apropos of a joint resolution to issue arms to the states of North and South Dakota and Nebraska. Mr. Voorhees having charged the situation to the fact of the Indians being starved to hostility.

Mr. Davis said he doubted the statement that the starving condition of some Indians was the cause of the present trouble, or that rations would be a cure for it.

Mr. Pierce said that the red man used to get more hay as well as more maize the farther people got away from him. (Laughter.) He quoted the statement attributed to Gov. Miles that a large number of Indians were starting.

The debate was interrupted at 2 o'clock by the election bill coming up, as the debate had been adjourned. Mr. Hoar, in charge of the bill said that in view of the fact that on reporting the bill he had addressed the senate on it he would now give any opening of the debate, but we contented ourselves to make a speech on the democratic side of the question.

Mr. Murphy then opened the discussion in opposition.

The substitute measure, he said, rested for its success on what was called the proposed colored Republican convention. In such a convention the electors, who are negroes, desiring to conciliate the colored people, are to be given the right to nominate a candidate for the office of governor. The negroes are to be given the right to nominate a candidate for the office of governor.

The proposed bill is to raise the sum needed for the proposed movement through a half cent contribution from the women of the United States, and the character of the negroes of the noble interior of the state guarantee that its money will be well spent.

RARE SURGICAL OPERATION.

A Thirty Pound Tumor Removed from a Woman's Stomach, but the Shock Causes Her Death—Various Other Happenings Within the State's Border.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 4.—Some weeks ago Mrs. S. H. Thos. of Greenville, O., came here to have a radical surgical operation performed, upon which depended life or death. A prominent physician at a Latrobe street hospital, who had had many successful cases, was both to take the case, as he knew there was but one chance in my of success, removed the tumor with which the poor woman was afflicted.

Upon admission, however, knowing that despatch was required in the case, he went to work. A tumor weighing thirty

Very few people realize that $50,000 of Marion county property, at appraised valuation, is exempt from taxation. It means that property to the amount of a million dollars in selling value, is free from the tax duplicate. This statement in a small county, noted more for the lack of public institutions than the existence of them, shows that this is a great country for the school house and the church building.

BUCYRS is having a little amusement with a paper railroad, the Columbus and Sandusky short line. By the way, it is about time we should have the same old story in a new form from Zanesville. What has become of Boone, anyway? We want to know about the able Colonel occasionally, whether he builds his system of roads or not. The story that Boone had his eye on a survey from Slick's Station to Latimerville is probably a lie.

This time is at hand to give the Citizens' Board of Trade a boom. With an admirable organization, all that is now needed is a large and active membership of Marion citizens. No one is excluded from the new organization, but the kickers and drones, and there should be none of the latter. The kicker is always with us. Every business man should be in, for Marion's progress is his prosperity. Every property owner should be in, for every step of the city's advancement means additional value to his premises. Lastly, all the young men should be in. They are the fellows with the pride and ambition and liberality that is worth so much in moving forward. There is to be nothing exclusive about it—there is no desire to have an organization that will avail nothing. The fellows who can put a shoulder to the wheel and push along the car of progress are desired. There ought to be a membership of three hundred, and then much good can be done. It isn't the good citizen that takes an interest in the city's progress, but the one that manifests that interest. Get in the procession and give things an active impetus that must require splendid accomplishments. The winter ought to be productive. There is time to agitate and discuss and preparations should be under way to make Marion blossom in the spring with a flower of promise of ten thousand people. The willing, enterprising fellows are wanted, little or much means, and things can be stirred up wonderfully. Fall in. If the committee soliciting members does not call on you, call on the committee.

The Resistance Magnet.

Professor Smythe (plain John Smith to commence with) was once lecturing in a Texas town on natural philosophy, and in the course of his experiments he introduced a most powerful magnet, with which he attracted a block of iron from a distance of two feet.

"Can any of you conceive a greater attractive power?" demanded the lecturer with an air of triumph.

"Reckon I can," answered a voice from the audience.

"Not a natural terrestrial one?"

The lecturer, somewhat taken aback, challenged the man who had spoken to him in the article.

Then up rose old Laertes Quigley, who:

"I can give you the facts, professor, as you can judge by yourself. When I was a young man there was a little piece of natural magnet come up in a kitchen and durability, as was called Betsy Marish. She could draw my fourteen miles every Sunday over plowed land, just as natural as claim down a greased pitch. That's what I'm pretty good, but I can't say just how to Betsy Marish."—Texas Star.

A True Bill.

There's a young minister in this town who's courting a girl in one of the saloons and adjourns. Her name is K. K. and she has a sister Grace. He went to see her one day last week, and had to leave very kindly invited the young man to tea.

"Will you have a seat, as we are a gentleman when they sat down the tea service at the table?"

"I—I beg your pardon," stammered the minister, blushing a little. "I—I thought of saying Grace. It was kind to me. I was after—"—Washington Star.

SHAKESPEARE

Said something about like this:

PUT MONEY IN THY PURSE

It is the task that everybody is at, though all do not succeed. It is not much trouble to get it, but the difficulty is to get it in the purse to accumulate. We can help you. Everybody is selling or talking about selling very cheap. We actually do it, sell so that you can save money. We realize the disappointments of a slow season, and, though we have done a handsome business, we want to clear off a heavy stock while it is still seasonable. When we say we are giving exceedingly low prices we mean it, as a long and straightforward business career here has attested.

$10.00—On every $10.00 purchase we will actually save you enough to buy a really handsome Christmas gift, and we have, too, some very practical and acceptable gifts to sell.
